

HighPoint Solutions, LLC Opens New European Headquarters in Geneva, Switzerland

European Expansion in Response to Increased Demand for Local Customer and Partner Support

EAST NORRITON, PA — August 6, 2013 — HighPoint Solutions, LLC., a premier management consulting and specialized IT consulting firm, announced it will be opening its European Headquarters in Geneva, Switzerland on October 1, 2013. The new international office will allow HighPoint to more effectively respond to demand from its clients and partners in the European market within its Life Sciences vertical. HighPoint will deliver business and technology services in the areas of Sales & Marketing, Pricing & Contracting, Clinical Operations, and Regulatory & Compliance.

“Pharmaceutical and MD&D manufacturers face unique complex commercial and regulatory pressures in the European markets. Our new office in Geneva allows us to combine our strong expertise globally along with a physical presence to more efficiently support our European customers and partners,” said Arnab Sikder, Senior Vice President and GM, European Operations”, “We are excited about tapping the rich pool of local talent in the market to continue to expand our team.”

HighPoint anticipates this office to be the first of many global offices as it extends its reach internationally. U.S. office locations of the East Norriton, PA-based company include: Boston; Chicago; Tampa, Florida; Bridgewater, New Jersey; and Irvine, Calif.
